

SOUTH AFRICA WARNING FORM: FWW/CFWW

Employee Name & Surname	Ronald Underweather
Employee No.	10203040	Job Title	DCA
Division	Logistics	Branch Name / Department	Tygerberg DC

Final Written Warning (FWW)	Valid for 12 months	☒
Comprehensive Final Written Warning (CFWW)	Valid for 12 months	☐

Note: the Fuse must be consulted before a Final Written Warning (FWW) or Comprehensive Final Written Warning (CFWW) can be issued.

Please note: the effect of a Comprehensive Final Written Warning (CFWW) is that should you transgress again in respect of any misconduct in the next 12 months, an enquiry may be convened which could result in your dismissal.

Charges:

Misconduct arising from your failure to act in good faith on 14 August 2026, when you posted negative comments about the company and the leadership of TFG on facebook.

1		2		3
Employees are required to provide a service	☐	Employees are required to be respectful and execute reasonable instructions	☐	Employees are required to be honest and act with integrity	☐
4		5		6
Employees are required to be diligent	☐	Employees are required to demonstrate acceptable behaviour	☐	Employees are required to act in good faith	☒

Please note repeated transgressions can result in a dismissal.

REPORT ON DISCUSSION HELD AND WARNING ISSUED

MANAGEMENT'S CASE:

Shortly after being reprimanded for trying to jump the home time queue on Friday afternoon, Ronald posted a comment on facebook which was seen by several of his colleagues. In the post he said "Working for this company is k@k. The bosses don't care if we miss our transport."

EMPLOYEE'S CASE:

Ronald said that he felt that it was unfair of the team leader to reprimand him and make him go to the back of the queue. It was a long day, he was tired and angry when he missed his train, so he lost his temper and posted the comment.

DECISION BASED ON:

Ronald was reminded that as an employee, he has a duty of good faith towards the company. This means that he is not allowed to make public comments which may impact negatively on the reputation of the company. In future, he should follow the grievance process if he is unhappy about a workplace issue. The Disciplinary Policy recommends a FWW for a first offence of this nature.

COMPLETED BY:

Name & Surname:	Emily Competent	Position:	Supervisor
Signature:		Date:	08/17/2026

RECEIVED BY:

Employee Name & Surname:	Ronald Underweather	Employee Number:	10203040
Signature:		Date:	08/17/2026
WITNESS – if employee refuses to sign:
Witness Name & Surname:		Employee Number:
Signature		Date:	